

Dannie Chiu (趙岩)

Director, Los Angeles (香港貿易發展局洛杉磯代表)

Hong Kong Trade Development Council

Dannie Chiu is currently Director, Los Angeles, of the Hong Kong Trade Development Council (HKTDC) who leads the Council's team in Los Angeles in facilitating companies in the western states with their business needs in Hong Kong and China using the Hong Kong business platform.

Since joining the HKTDC in 1994, Dannie has taken up assignments both in Hong Kong and the U.S.A. She was marketing manager of the HKTDC Los Angeles office from 1999 to 2002. Prior to that, she was project manager of the Council's various promotional activities in the U.S.A., Central and South America.

Based in Hong Kong in the past few years, Dannie was responsible for the development of several renowned trade fairs held in Hong Kong such as the Hong Kong Fashion Week, International Conference & Exhibition of the Modernization of Chinese Medicine & Health Products, Hong Kong International Lighting Fair, Hong Kong Optical Fair, and Hong Kong Watch & Clock Fair. Through her role as Manager of Exhibition Sales, Dannie has become familiar of the business environment of the different industries in Hong Kong and China.

Dannie holds a bachelor degree in Business Administration from the University of Southern California and a MBA degree from the Loyola Marymount University. She is fluent in English, Cantonese and Mandarin Chinese.

Headquartered in Hong Kong and with over 40 offices worldwide, HKTDC is a quasi-government agency responsible for promoting Hong Kong's international trade and services. It helps in developing Hong Kong's role as an information hub, a sourcing and business center in Asia-Pacific and the gateway to China.
